on 23rd January 2017; Dr. Jackson Maalu held a consultative meeting with the College student leaders (SONU and Congress), the SMU manager Dr. Khatete, Halls officer and halls custodians.

The agenda of the meeting was to discuss the general student welfare with a specific focus on halls of residence, meals and conflict resolution.

During the meeting; Dr. Maalu highlighted some of the major renovations the College has undertaken in the halls of residence to ensure the facilities are up to standard. Each student leader was given an opportunity to present the challenges and areas of concern.

The Student Welfare Authority team has held similar meetings with student leaders across all Colleges with an aim to provide adequate, safe, secure and clean accomodation as well as catering services that offer variety, affordable and delicious meals.
