The 7th Open Day is currently underway at the University of Nairobi. The University will open its doors to parents, students and stakeholders from Wednesday 25th May –Saturday 27th May 2017 at Main Campus. The theme for this year’s open day is “Quality and Innovative education to Sustain Industrial Growth”.

The Vice Chancellor Prof. Mbithi held an official opening ceremony at the University grounds, in his remarks he stressed the University’s commitment to hold yearly open days to provide a platform for students, parents, other institutions of higher learning and stakeholders to scrutinize academic programmes and interact with the University of Nairobi community.

The 3 day event will involve exhibitions from all Colleges which will be showcasing academic courses offered in their institutions, career talks and guidance from industry leaders and stakeholders.
