STAFF SENSITIZATION ON CORRUPTION PREVENTION, ETHICS AND INTEGRITY

Staff of the College of Education and External Studies on 9th March 2016 participated in a capacity building workshop on corruption prevention, Ethics and Integrity at the QC boardroom, Kikuyu Campus.

The objective of this sensitization workshop was to mainly expound on the set policies and legislation that mitigate corruption in the University and by extension, Kenya. During the workshop, facilitators also introduced participants to various policies developed by the University of Nairobi touching on matters procurement, corruption, ethics and integrity.

There training was facilitated by various speakers from the University of Nairobi, Central Administration unit. Key among them;

Mr. Tim Mweseli - Ag. Chief Legal Officer

TOPIC: Corruption Prevention: Tools and Strategies in the University of Nairobi for the staff and Student Welfare Authority.

Beatrice Wanjala: Ag. Registrar Research, Production and Extension (RPE)

TOPIC: Tools and Strategies in the University of Nairobi for the staff and Student Welfare Authority

Naomi N. Njuguna- Lecturer, School Of Law; University Of Nairobi

TOPIC: Leadership and Integrity: Guidelines on the conduct of Public And State Officers

Mr. Fredrick Collins Omondi - Senior Legal Officer, Legal Office.

TOPIC: Policies and legal framework in anti-corruption in Kenya

Joseph M. K. Mokaya - Procurement Manager

TOPIC: Public Procurement and Asset Disposal Act, 2015: Application in The University Of Nairobi.

Dr. D. Bulinda- Registrar Administration.

TOPIC: Service delivery in the University of Nairobi.

The training was attended by the Registrar, Dean School of Education; Prof. Akala and Dean School of continuing and Distance Education; Prof. Kidombo, Chairmen of various departments, Director CODL, section heads, Lecturers and support staff from Kikuyu and Kenya Science Campus. The College Principal was at hand to welcome the facilitators and urged everyone to follow the training keenly, saying that corruption is a very prevalent topic in Kenya at the moment as evidenced by the daily reports on Corruption in the media.
The interactive session provided a platform for staff to get clarification on various ethical issues that staff experience as in their day-to-day interactions with fellow members of staff, students and general public.

The University of Nairobi has held similar sensitization workshops in other campuses in a bid to address corruption and matters ethics and integrity.